BSP ANNOUNCES NEW PARTNER PROMOTIONS

BSP is pleased to announce the promotion of two new partners, effective 1st January 2023. The partnership now consists of 18 partners, 9 women and 9 men.

- Daniel Riedel: Daniel has considerable experience in Luxembourg and international tax law, advising corporations, sponsors, partnerships and private individuals on a whole range of domestic and international tax issues in respect of corporate, infrastructure, private equity, venture capital and real estate, including transfer pricing, litigation, tax reporting and tax compliance matters.
Daniel regularly contributes to the Luxembourg tax doctrine, speaks at tax conferences in Luxembourg and abroad and is a visiting lecturer in tax law at the University of Lorraine, University of Luxembourg and the University of Liechtenstein.
- Nicolas Widung: Nicolas has considerable experience in financing transactions, in particular in the domestic market where he has advised on large real estate and acquisition financings. He also provides legal advice on insolvency and restructuring matters and in corporate law.

“These partner promotions demonstrate the continuing growth ambitions of our firm and our commitment to recognising professionals who contribute to the success of BSP through their hard work and dedication”, said Alain Steichen, Managing Partner at BSP. “This has been a significant year for BSP, celebrating the 10th year anniversary and the moving to our brand new premises. We are proud to celebrate a further exciting milestone for BSP with these promotions and we congratulate Daniel and Nicolas on this achievement and welcome them to the partnership.”
