BSP expands Corporate, M&A and Financing capabilities with Counsel Delphine Gomes

BSP is pleased to announce the arrival of Delphine Gomes as Counsel, effective October 1st. This appointment underscores the firm's commitment to strengthening its expertise in the corporate/M&A and banking and finance sectors.

Delphine joins the team led by Partner Cécile Jager, bringing over a decade of international experience in secured lending and corporate/M&A transactions. Dual-qualified in Paris and Luxembourg, she has extensive experience advising private equity firms, investment funds, and asset managers on the full spectrum of private equity and real estate transactions, covering structuring and acquisitions, implementation of external financings, and exit strategies.

Alain Steichen, Managing Partner, commented: "The private equity and sophisticated financing landscape is evolving rapidly, and our clients' needs are becoming more complex. Delphine's experience is a welcome addition to our firm and a strategic move. Her arrival strengthens our offering and is key to executing our growth strategy in the private equity industry."

Cécile Jager, Partner in charge of the team, added: "We are delighted to welcome Delphine to the team. Her recognition within the market, including her work with the LPEA, immediately enhances our capacity to service high-value transactions. We are confident that her expertise will be an added value for both the team and our expanding client base."

Delphine is an active member of the LPEA PE Financing Legal Committee, the LPEA YPEL (Young Private Equity Leaders) Legal Committee and of the International Bar Association (IBA). She has also co-authored a number of legal guides and publications on financing and debt capital markets.
